Domestic Violence and Spiritual Abuse: What Every Christian Needs to Know

Presenting will be The Rev. Al Miles, Pacific Health Ministry Chaplain serving at The Queen's Medical Center as the Coordinator of the Hospital Ministry Department

This all-day event will help congregations address the following questions:

- What is domestic violence?
- Based on statistics that one in four women experience domestic violence, it is present in our churches. How do we respond?
- How do Christian teachings, church doctrine, and interpretation of scriptures contribute to domestic violence?
- How can clergy and lay leaders help address this issue in our congregations?

Time: 8:00 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Location: Nu'uanu Congregational Church (2651 Pali Highway)

Cost: $12 per person (includes continental breakfast and lunch)

Deadline to Register: Monday, October 6, 2014

All members of O'ahu churches are invited to attend. Agenda will include opening worship with a four-way covenant recognition and a short business meeting to include approval of 2015 budget.
