The Hawai‘i Conference Foundation (the “Foundation”) manages assets for the Hawai‘i Conference United Church of Christ (the “Hawai‘i UCC Churches”) and offers investment services for the Hawai‘i UCC Churches, associations and related church organizations. Chartered in 1968, the Foundation manages both real property and various financial assets.

Local UCC Churches may take advantage of the Foundation's investment pool by placing permanent or long term funds in what are known as “Custodial Funds” within the Foundation. Such funds remain the sole property of the Local UCC Church, and decisions about how much of the fund's earnings or principal to use annually are entirely up to the Local UCC Church. Over fifty Hawai‘i UCC Churches currently have active Custodial Funds.

This statement is intended to explain some of the practical matters of a Custodial Fund. In compliance with the Philanthropy Protection Act of 1995 (P.L. 104-62) (the “Act”), it also serves to describe, in writing, the material terms of the operation of a Custodial Fund established with the Foundation. Custodial Funds managed by the Foundation are exempt from registration requirements of the federal securities laws, pursuant to the exemption for collective investment funds and similar funds maintained by charitable organizations under the Act. Information in this disclosure statement is provided to you in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

A. Custodial Fund Information

1. Advantages

By setting up a Custodial Fund within the Foundation, the Local UCC Church:

- May receive the advantages of both greater potential earnings and more investment diversification, both of which are possible when a larger pool of money is available for investing;
The Local UCC Church’s congregation is freed of the direct responsibilities associated with the actual investing of funds;
Scarce and valuable congregational time and talent can be used for ministries that directly relate to the Local UCC Church’s mission;
Potential conflicts within congregations may be avoided when the church does not have to choose between two or more investment management options proposed by or connected with Church members;
Fees to the congregation generally are lower than the fees that would be charged for directly investing small amounts of funds; and
Donors can feel secure knowing that their gifts will be managed prudently and consistently.

At the same time, the Local UCC Church:
Retains full ownership and control of its funds;
May choose how much of the annual earnings to use;
May withdraw principal;
Receives quarterly reports showing current market value and earnings of its funds; and Receives the advantages of an annual professional and independent audit of all Hawai‘i Conference Foundation funds, including Custodial Funds.

2. Operation

The Hawai‘i UCC Church Custodial Funds are pooled with funds of the Foundation for investment purposes. Each Hawai‘i UCC Church’s Custodial Fund is assigned a certain number of Shares of the total monies being invested from all sources, and earnings are then assigned based on the number of Shares each Hawai‘i UCC Church has. It is similar in certain respects to how a mutual fund is handled.

Additions to Custodial Funds may be made at any time, and flexible withdrawal guidelines even allow a Hawai‘i UCC Church’s permanent funds to be available without penalty with a minimum of formal notice.

Regular withdrawals from Custodial Funds can be scheduled up to four times a year. Reports to the Hawai‘i UCC Churches are issued quarterly.

3. Management

The Hawai‘i Conference Foundation Board of Trustees (the “Trustees”) is responsible for management of the Foundation’s investment activity. The Foundation’s Trustees consist of 11 Members as follows: three Members of the Conference Council; the Chairperson of the Conference Council; the Conference Minister of the Hawai‘i Conference; four persons nominated by the Board of Trustees of the Foundation and elected by the Conference Council; and two persons nominated by the Conference Council and elected by the Members of the Conference at an annual meeting of the Conference.
The Foundation’s Trustees approve the Investment Guidelines for the investment portfolio and hire an Investment Monitor to insure compliance with the Guidelines. The Foundation’s Trustees currently engage professional investment managers to manage varying amounts of the total Foundation investment portfolio. The Foundation also has an Investment Committee that makes recommendations to the Foundation’s Trustees.

Fees and expenses associated with a Custodial Fund are as follows:

Administrative Fee: 30 basis points (0.30%) per annum, calculated and collected by Hawai‘i Conference Foundation on a quarterly basis.
B. How to Start

1. Participants

The Foundation may act as investment agent and Custodial for only:

- Hawai‘i Conference United Church of Christ churches;
- Tax-exempt institutions, organizations, and agencies related to the Hawai‘i Conference United Church of Christ churches;
- Tax-exempt sub-units of the Hawai‘i Conference United Church of Christ churches or related institutions, organizations, and agencies

The entities listed above, hereinafter referred to as “Participants,” must be charitable not-for-profit organizations exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) or other applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Participants may place assets with the Foundation for investment in any of the investment funds. The Foundation’s Custodial duties include physical safekeeping, investment and distribution of Fund assets in accordance with the directions of the Participants. All investments by Participants must represent assets of the Participants only.

2. Eligible Funds

At this time, only permanent or semi-permanent funds, such as endowments or certain restricted funds, should be considered for placement in a Foundation Custodial Fund. If the Church believes the funds will probably be needed in the near future, shorter term investment options are probably advisable.

3. The Process

Starting a Custodial Fund is easy. Simply request a Custodial Fund Agreement Form from the Foundation. After a representative of your church fills out and signs the Custodial Fund Agreement Form, please send it to the Foundation:

Hawai‘i Conference Foundation
c/o Sherman Hee, Executive Director
1848 Nuuanu Avenue
Honolulu, HI 96817

Please include a check and a cover letter which should state how frequently and how much your church would like to withdraw annually, semi-annually, or quarterly. The Foundation will review your materials and will be in contact with you shortly thereafter.

4. Disclaimer

Prospective Participants are advised to consult with their attorney or tax advisor. This disclosure statement does not constitute legal or tax advice. To ensure compliance, please be aware that any U.S. federal tax information contained in this disclosure statement is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, for the purpose of (i) avoiding penalties under the Internal Revenue Code, or (ii) promoting, marketing, or recommending to another party to any transaction or matter addressed herein.

C. Risk

The risk inherent in investing in a Custodial Fund is the risk common to any security: that the net asset value of the Funds will fluctuate in response to changes in economic conditions, interest rates, the perceptions of the national securities markets of the underlying securities held by the Funds and other factors. There can be no assurance that a Fund will achieve its investment objective because there is uncertainty in every investment. The Funds will invest in securities that may increase or decrease in value.

Although the Funds seek to reduce risk by investing in diversified portfolios of various types of investments, such diversification does not eliminate all risks. There is no assurance that such diversification will reduce the variability of the return or preserve the assets from loss.

The Custodial Funds are not guaranteed by the Foundation, nor any organization associated with it, nor by any governmental agency or organization.
